Luke 1.26-38

God chooses an ordinary girl for the extraordinary job of being the mother of Jesus.

Family time

Talk Turn over a series of small objects and discuss together what they look like upside-down.

Do Create your own collage of Mary and angel pictures, perhaps using Christmas cards as you receive them or old ones from last year. Stick it onto your fridge until Christmas day to remind you of the way this ordinary girl helped God to turn the world upside-down.

Pray Make up an acrostic prayer together using the words 'upside-down'.

Activity time

Draw

Add expressions to Mary's faces to show how she might have felt before and after the angel came.

Puzzle

Try to write your name upside-down in the box.

Write

Can you unscramble the message to work out what the angel said?

Handwriting practice lines for unscrambling the message. The lines are: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, a solid bottom line, and a second set of the same three lines below it.

Answer: 'You will become pregnant and give birth to a son.'
